Dear Mr. Singleton:

Re: CPSO/DC/Dr. J.A. MacDougall

[REDACTED]

I further confirm my telephone advice to you that I spoke personally and at some length with the two remaining complainants, Ms. Gravelle and Ms. Corriveau, to keep them advised of the negotiations and to let them know the terms of the final Agreement. They have both expressed great satisfaction with the process and with the result.

Perhaps I should record for you, as well, what has been the subject of my discussions with them, and, as well with you, but may not have been reported to you in writing. I refer to the fact that the complainant Helen Henderson has been totally unwilling to meet with us, to talk with us, or to participate in any way in the hearing. When Ms. Corriveau learned of that, she herself was unwilling to testify and Ms. Gravelle was unwilling to be the only complainant testifying. Both of them were concerned that they might suffer adversely at the RCMP if they were to testify.
